

Blackburn with Darwen

ADULT LEARNING

E3 Speaking and Listening: Finding out what's in the news

Talk with somebody about ways of finding out what's in the news.

Nowadays there are many different ways of finding out what's in the news. Talk together about the different ways of getting the news and say which you prefer.

Prompt questions to help you:

What type of news are you most interested in ?
(For example: politics, sport, news, about famous people)

How do you find out about what's in the news?

Do you think people will continue to read newspapers in the future?

How do you prefer to find out what's in the news?

Do you think the media should give us more happy stories?

Do you think that there's too much news about the private lives of famous people? Why/Why not?