ADULT LEARNING

Welcome to Learning

Welcome

Welcome to Blackburn with Darwen Borough Council's Adult Learning Service. This booklet outlines:

- what you can expect when you take part in adult learning with us;
- what we ask you to do to get the most out of learning.

If anything is not clear or you have any questions, please talk to your tutor or the skills development officer who helped to set up your course.

Our aim:

Our purpose is to improve the work prospects and wellbeing of people and their communities by:

- Improving their skills and increasing their economic prospects
- Improving their health and wellbeing
- Creating resilient, cohesive and stronger communities
- Creating cleaner and safer neighbourhoods

Adult Learning aims to offer learning which:

- Improves your health and wellbeing
- Is built around what you want to learn
- Helps you to do more than you thought you could
- Supports you in taking the next step to further learning, volunteering or employment.

We offer a wide range of adult learning courses from short sessions to longer courses delivered from a variety of community venues across Blackburn with Darwen.

To make the most out of your learning, we ask you to:

- Tell us about what you want to learn
- Fill in an enrolment form
- Provide accurate information and proof of your identity to confirm your eligibility for a course and to allow us to request a Unique Learner Number (ULN) from the Learner Registration Service
- Let the tutor know about any extra help you may need during the course
- Keep letting the tutor know how it's going, what you want to do more of and what you need more practice with
- Attend every session and always be on time
- Contact your tutor or centre if you can't get to a session, or have to stop coming for any reason
- Tell us what you would like to do next.

Information, Advice and Guidance

- We hope you will enjoy your learning with the Adult Learning service. During each course, we will review your learning with you.
- We want everyone to consider the question "what next?" You might want to progress to another course in the same or a different subject. You might feel that you want to become a volunteer, get help to find work or find a better job.
- We offer a free, confidential one-to-one guidance service on learning, training and employment for all adults through our learning centres.

What can we do to help?

We want you to achieve your full potential and will support you to do this. We can offer additional learning support to help you during your learning journey with us.

If you feel you need some extra support, let your tutor know and we'll do what we can to help you. We respect confidentiality and will work with you to agree the most appropriate support.

Learner Views and feedback

We value the opinion of all our learners and we will ask you to give us feedback when you are learning with us by:

- Contributing to a class visit or an observation of teaching and learning – people may visit your class to check the quality of teaching and learning. Please tell them about your learning experience if they ask you.
- Take part in surveys – your tutor will ask you to complete a course evaluation towards the end of your course and we'd greatly appreciate it if you could complete it and return it.

Our Commitment to You

Health and Safety

While you are in our centres, we endeavour to keep you safe. Your tutor will inform you of any health and safety aspects relating to your learning and the learning environment.

We ask that if you are unwell you do not attend your class but take appropriate action. If you are exhibiting signs and symptoms of Covid please follow the current government guidance which can be found at nhs.uk/coronavirus or call 111.

Equality & Diversity

We are committed to equal opportunities, meaning everyone has the same chance to learn with us, to decide what they want to learn and to get the most out of their learning. We expect our staff to show respect to learners, and learners in turn to show respect to each other and to staff. We ask our tutors to challenge anyone in the session who does not show respect to others. If you feel you are not getting a fair chance in any way, please speak to your tutor at once.

Safeguarding

We believe that every adult has the right to feel safe, be treated with dignity, have their choices respected and live a life free from fear. If you see, or know of a worrying situation please do not ignore it. You can report any concerns to your tutor or telephone the Safeguarding Team for advice:

01254 585949

safeguarding.adultsteam@blackburn.gov.uk

Out of normal office hours, contact the Emergency Duty Team on:

01254 587547, or contact the Police 999.

Your responsibilities are:

- to respect other people's right to safety;
- not to hurt or abuse others; and
- not to threaten to hurt or abuse others.

Prevent

Under the Counter Terrorism and Security Act 2015, all education providers must have due regard for the need to prevent individuals from being drawn into terrorism. We aim to protect all of our learners and staff and work closely with the Prevent Team based within Blackburn with Darwen Borough Council.

If you have any questions or would like to report behaviour which you believe the Prevent Team should be aware of, please call 01254 585588.

Email: prevent.team@blackburn.gov.uk

British Values

British Values underpin what it is to be a citizen in a modern and diverse Great Britain. We actively demonstrate and promote these values to all our learners and embed them within all curriculum areas.
